MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM
ASSIGNMENT PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE 83.38

Pursuant to Local Rule 83.38(a)(4), Attorney Brandon K. Crase respectfully moves for relief from the assignment to represent Plaintiff Adam Hunter ("Plaintiff") in the above-referenced matter. In support of said motion, Attorney Crase states as follows:

1. On March 27, 2017, this Court entered an Order (Doc. 13) assigning Brandon Crase as pro bono counsel for Plaintiff and directed Crase to file an Attorney Appearance by April 10, 2017.

2. Crase hereby respectfully moves for relief from the assignment because he is in the process of leaving his current employment at Latham & Watkins and has not yet determined his next place of employment.

3. Given the foregoing, Crase respectfully submits that he is not currently well-suited to take on the responsibility of investigating Plaintiff's claims and representing Plaintiff in the above-referenced action. Specifically, Crase will likely soon no longer be employed by Latham & Watkins and may not have the resources necessary to effectively represent Plaintiff.

4. Crase respectfully submits that his current situation should provide an adequate basis to relieve him from the assignment in the above-referenced matter pursuant to Local Rule 83.38(a)(4).

5. Crase understands and appreciates that if the Court enters an order granting the relief requested with this motion, he will be responsible for completing the requirements detailed in Local Rule 83.38(c)(2).

WHEREFORE, Brandon K. Crase respectfully requests that the Court relieve him from the assignment to represent Plaintiff in the above-referenced matter.

Dated: April 6, 2017

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Brandon K. Crase
